

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY EXTENSION

Recognizing Child Abuse and Neglect Training for Camp Counselors

WHY IMPORTANT

Camp is the #1 highest risk activity Ohio 4-H offers. There is endless opportunity for injury to a person, property, and/or reputation to yourself, your program, and to The Ohio State University.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

This training seeks to offer Ohio 4-H Educators the tools necessary to provide camp counselors with both the content and context for child abuse prevention and reporting at camp.

- Provide definitions of the four types of abuse
- Offer examples of what each type of abuse might look like in a camp setting
- Outline the expectations for reporting in a camp setting
- Deliver applied-learning opportunities for real-world camp scenarios

WHAT'S INCLUDED?

- Parent Letter
- Camp Counselor Child Abuse Training Powerpoint with facilitator talking points
- Parent Letter explaining significance and depth of topic coverage
- 20 learning scenarios with discussion questions and approved answers
- Child Abuse Jeopardy Game that has unique questions and situations to test comprehension
- Evaluation Tool to measure topic knowledge before and after training
